Top Van and Truck Models of 2009 Feature Ferodo® Brake Pads

Federal-Mogul Friction Brand also Swept Top 3 Vehicle Models in 2008

Aartselaar, Antwerp, Belgium...Ferodo brake pads from Federal-Mogul Corporation (NASDAQ:FDML) are featured as original equipment on both the 2009 International Van and Truck of the Year models.

Both the '09 International Van of the Year, the Peugeot Bipper/Citroen Nemo/Fiat Fiorino platform, and Truck of the Year, the new Mercedes-Benz Actros, are equipped with premium Ferodo brake pads as standard equipment. The vehicle awards were announced in conjunction with the 62nd International Commercial Vehicle Show in Hanover, Germany, in September. Other leading 2009 passenger vehicle models featuring Ferodo brake pads as standard equipment include the Volkswagen Golf VI, Audi Q5, Fiat Punto Abarth, Volvo S80, Mitsubishi Lancer EVO X, Ford Kuga, Alfa Romeo MiTo and Renault Megane.

“In each case, the vehicle manufacturer selected Federal-Mogul and the Ferodo brand based on our ability to deliver powerful, reliable, quiet braking in highly demanding operating conditions,” said Silvano Veglia, Federal-Mogul braking products director, Europe, Middle East and Africa.

The 2009 Bipper/Nemo/Fiorino is an entry-level compact utility vehicle combining exceptional handling and optimised load volume. The third generation of the Mercedes-Benz Actros has benefited from a number of improvements to the driveability, efficiency and safety of the truck in the road transport field.

“The Peugeot Bipper platform and Mercedes Actros are innovative models that are operated in a variety of demanding environments. The fact that Ferodo brake pads from Federal-Mogul were chosen for both of these award-winning models is a testament to the superior performance and reliability of our world-class friction formulations and pad designs,” Veglia said.

“The Ferodo brand’s presence on award-winning vehicle platforms is not new though” says Veglia; in 2008, for example, Ferodo brake pads were standard equipment on the International Passenger Car, Van and Truck models.
